

Dear Artists

It's October and it is time to open the doors to the Norwescon 35 Art Show. We are very excited to contact you and hope that you will once again wish to participate in our show.

The first thing that we would like to let you know is that we will once again be having an evening art reception on Thursday. This reception continues to be a great success in featuring your art to our professional guests and kicking off the convention.

As you may remember from last year, Norwescon had decided to make a focused effort in supporting our writing and artist community by providing scholarships to the Clarion West program and the Northwest College of Art. We have again decided to continue both of these scholarship programs. Like last year the art will be judged at the convention by our panel of judges and the winner will receive a scholarship to be put towards their education at the school. All work provided will adhere to the rules and standard set by Norwescon for all its artists. We are very excited to be able to use Norwescon as a venue to develop and inspire the next generation of SF and Fantasy artists and hope that we are able to continue this program for many years to come and possible expand in coming years.

Be sure to check out Norwescon's Artist Alley. It is a great way to demo your work and meet convention members and it is a lot of fun. Please check out our website or you can contact David Ketcherside at artistsalley@norwescon.org for additional information.

Please remember that purchasing space in the art show does not include a membership in Norwescon, if you are planning on attending the convention you will need to make separate arrangements for this by contacting the registration department.

Attached you will find the "Snap Shot" (overview) regarding the specifics for the art show as well as the reservation form and policies. We would like to thank you for your interest and for participating in Norwescon's art show and encourage you to contact us with your ideas or concerns so that we can continue to move forward with making the Norwescon Art Show the best that it can be for you and for our members.

You can contact us directly at artshow@norwescon.org. We look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

Doug and Pat Booze
